

Wayne Siegel

Paso

for flute, cello, percussion and guitar (10')

1993

Paso was composed in 1993 commissioned by the Janus ensemble with support from the Danish Art Council. The word "paso" means step in Spanish, but it also means passage or pass (as in a mountain pass). The work is written for flute, guitar, cello and percussion and has a Latin American character.