

Wayne Siegel

Sound Patterns

for clarinet, cello and piano (14')

1987

Sound Patterns was commissioned by the Lin Ensemble through a grant from the Danish Art Council. The piece consists of a single movement with many distinct rhythmic, harmonic and melodic patterns. These patterns are sharply delineated, like the brightly colored patterns of a Mondrian painting. The work has been performed extensively by the Lin Ensemble in Europe, South America and Japan.

CD available here: <http://www.dacapo-records.dk/recording-clarinet-trios.aspx>